PRESS RELEASE

June 6, 2011 @ 3:45pm

Warren County Sheriff Kevin Harrison reports the arrest of a 21 year old man from Troy Missouri on June 5, 2011 for charges of Tampering with a Motor Vehicle involving a Missouri Department of Transportation dump truck. The charges originated from a 911 call pertaining to a vehicle accident on Bell Road near Poor Boy Ranch Road in Wright City. The suspect was identified as:

Jason A. McGhee, W, M, 21 Years Old
2500 Block of Myers Road, Troy, MO
Tampering with Motor Vehicle 1st Degree
Leaving Scene of Accident
Tampering with Evidence
Knowingly Burning
$40,000.00 Cash or Surety Bond

WCSD Deputy Bryan Shepard was dispatched to the area of Bell Road and Poor Boy Ranch Road at 6:09am on June 5, 2011 to investigate a motor vehicle accident involving a dump truck that was on fire. It was later determined that McGhee and one other suspect stole the truck from the MODOT shed on Highway T, drove it into the Wright City area, crashed it into a utility pole, attempted to light it on fire by soaking paper towels in fuel and lighting them on fire, and then attempted to flee the area. The second suspect was released pending further investigation and application for warrants.
